

Biography - The BREAK ME DOWN Story

Break Me Down is an Italian Alternative Metal band from Milan, formed in 2017.

The energy and the beauty of their songs releases a powerful emotion that explodes during their live performances.

With Faith Blurry on vocals, they released their first EP "Resilience" in January 2018, which contains three unedited songs written and produced by the band, then recorded and mixed by Matteo Magni at Magnitude Studio.

Among many shows all over their country there are some important as opening act for international artists like: Crazy Town, Joe Stump's Tower of Babel, Vinnie Moore and Lacuna Coil.

On February 2019 Faith left the band to follow her own path.

On March 2019 Irene Franco became the new BMD singer.

The current line-up sees Irene Franco(Vocals), Morris Steel(Guitars), Laerte Ungaro(Guitars), Giuseppe "LoChef" Greco(Bass) and Fabio Benedan(Drums).

On September 2019 They will released the first single "Your Game" from the brand new record "The Pond".

On October 17th 2019 BMD released their first LP on every digital store! "The Pond" contains eleven unedited songs written and produced by the band, then recorded and mixed again by Matteo Magni at Magnitude Studio.

Stay Tuned!
